

*A Homegoing
Celebration of
Shirley Jeane Harper*

Officiating - Superintendant Albert Williams Sr.

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever...

Since my first breath

Since my first breath. Your eyes, when I looked in your eyes I seen the true you. I seen you were sweet and caring, I seen you were giving and forgiving.

I seen you love me when I looked into your eyes. I was able to stop myself from crying and doing wrong. You been around my whole life, since my first breath now I am alone.

I think about your eyes and I start to cry because now I will never see love or the sweetness that you gave me. You're not completely gone, everytime I close my eyes there you will be.

With each deciscion I make I know you are with me, as you have been since my very first breath.

Enjoy your long awaited reward. What was taught to me will be taught to mine.

Your eyes, I wonder sometimes where you kept your wings? Your holy wings, are they hung in the closet with the rest of your dresses and things? Do you put them away and only use them at night?

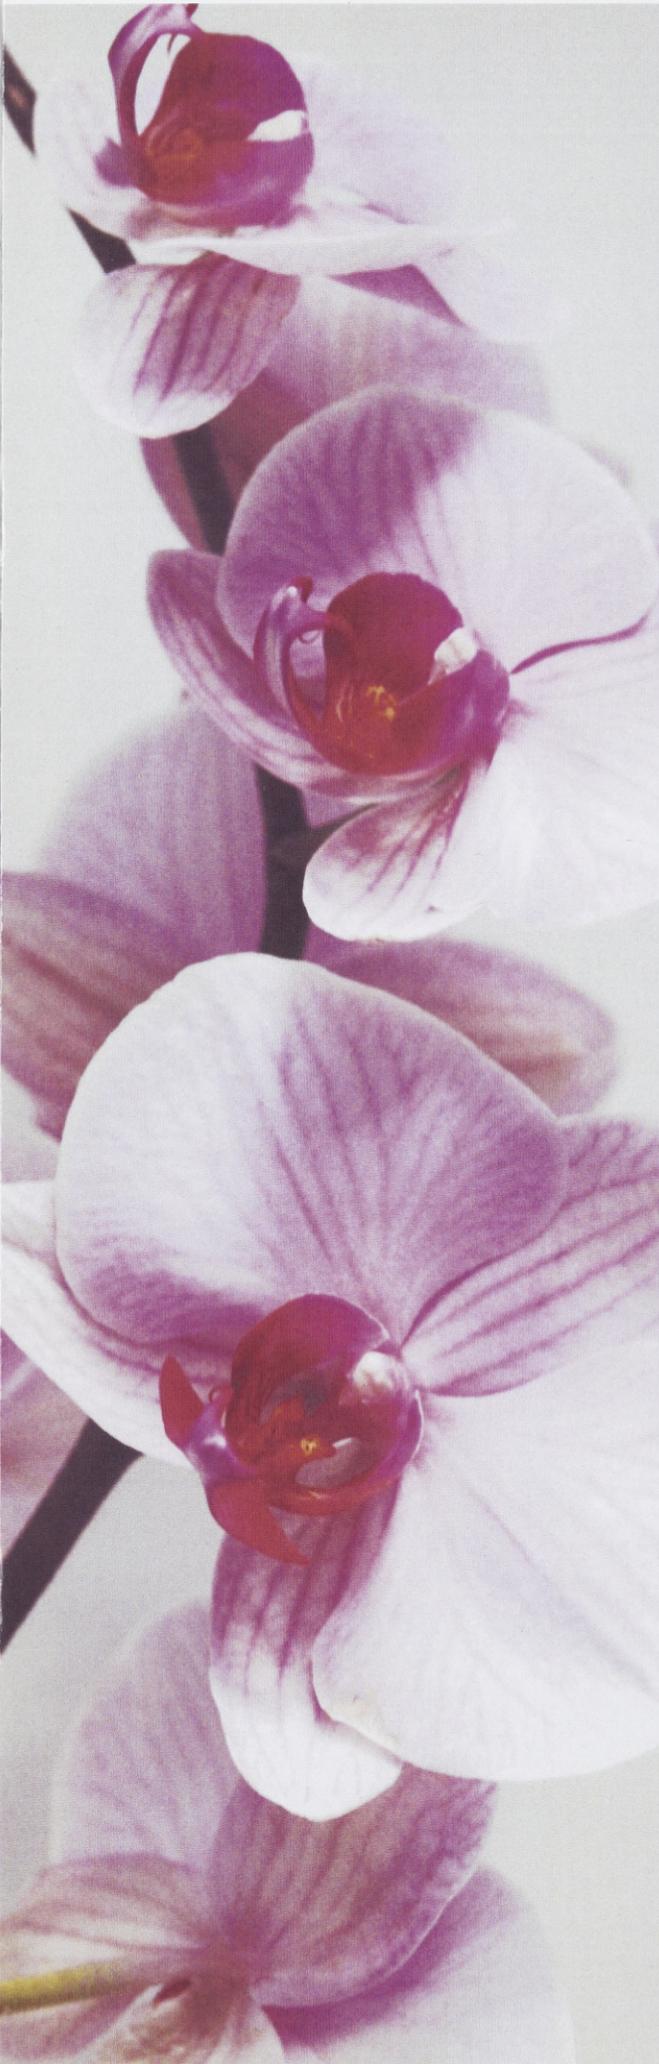

If I needed a hug or two I knew I could depend on you, giving hugs is whatyou did and you did it better than the rest. You believed in me and gave me hope when I didn't believe in myself.

Though her smile and eyes are not with me and gone forever, her heart and hands I cannot touch I still have so many memories of the one I love so much.

I may never find a love like yours and mine. I'll never be the one and only chocolate baby to anyone. Your prayers and memories is what I will keep in my heart forever because you taught me a lot.

I love you and will always miss you. To My grandmother, my friend, and my mother. To the leader and the teacher of my life, the only one I could tell my secrets and wrongs to.

*I Love you Grandma,
Because you've been with me since my first breath*

*With Elegance
those worthy will rise.*

For just being you, thank you for always looking out for me, loving me, caring for me, and seeing me
through my darkest days.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

For always standing up for me. never ever doubting me, and trusting me.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

For always having me on Vienna Street, walking up that hill.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

For using that sifter to bake those wonderful cakes.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

For no matter what I did, you understood me, and put me back in my place with such elegance.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

For taking me to church, and having me in your wedding when I was a little girl feeling like a superstar.

Your elegance will rise, that will always lift my mood.

So thanks for teaching me compassion, love and kindness. Just thanks for being you.

Auntie Shirley,
Love MooMoo

Lord keep me by day Lyrics

Verse 1:

Lord, keep me day by day
In a pure and perfect way
I want to live, I want to live on
In a building not made by hand
Every day I pray
Lord, keep my day by day
In a pure and perfect way
Lord yes
I want to live, I want to live on
Oh, in a building not made by hand

Verse 2:

I'm just a stranger here
And every day I'm traveling through
Traveling through this barren land
Lord, I know there's a building somewhere
Oh, a building not made by hand

Verse 3:

Lord, keep my body strong
I just want you to keep me so that
So that I can do no wrong
Lord, give me grace
So that I may run this Christian race
To a building not made by hand
I said that I want to live
I said really I want to live on
I want to live on
In a building not made by hand
